Re: R.A. "Bob" Baker Realty, Reference #312067

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am Dennis C. Miller, President of R.A. "Bob" Baker, Inc.

I am writing to resolve a situation, which my wife, who is also my accountant, has not been able to.

Our office received the Uniform Business Report form in early July. This was first and only time we received this report. The instructions enclosed with the report state that in this situation a late fee is not due if the original fee of $150 is sent with a statement such as this one.

The accountant sent the appropriate documentation, only to once again receive a notice demanding the late fee. I cannot understand this, except that the accountant is not an actual officer of the corporation.

As an officer of the corporation I am once again submitting the form 'as is' and request waiver of the late fee due to the fact that the July receipt was the first and only receipt of this form.

Sincerely,

Dennis C. Miller
President/Broker
