Re:

Reinstating AmeriFirst Insurance Company and Amending

Its Florida Registration to Reflect a Name Change

Dear Sirs:

I am writing on behalf of AmeriFirst Insurance Company (the "Company") for three purposes: (1) reinstate the Company's authorization to transact business in Florida; (2) amend the Company's Florida registration to reflect the Company's recent name change to Vencor Insurance Company; and (3) obtain a Florida Certificate of Status in the Company's new name.

I. Reinstate the Company.

The Company is an Indiana domiciled life and health insurer that is licensed to write Life, Group Life & Annuities, and Accident & Health insurance in Florida. Apparently, though, the Company's authority to transact business in Florida as a foreign profit corporation was revoked by your office on September 26, 1997 because the Company failed to file an annual statement with your office.

I am writing to request that the Company's authority to transact business in Florida be reinstated. To do this, I have enclosed:

1. A Florida Application for Reinstatement; and

Congre -

2. A check for $750 to the Florida Department of State.

As you will notice, the Application for Reinstatement contains updated information regarding the Company, in particular its new home and mailing addresses and its new officers and directors. However, one item that Application is unable to reveal is the Company's recent name change, which is addressed next in Section II.

II. Amending the Company's Name.

On October 10, 1997, the Company amended and restated its Articles of Incorporation to, among other things, change its name to "Vencor Insurance Company." Pursuant to Indiana law, the Indiana Department of Insurance, the Indiana Attorney General, and the Indiana Secretary of State recently approved the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, and therefore, effective November 7, the Company's legal name became Vencor Insurance Company.

Consequently, the Company's Florida registration (once your office reinstates the Company) needs to be amended to reflect the Company's new name of Vencor Insurance Company. Pursuant to the requirements listed in your office's letter to me, I have enclosed the following items to amend the Company's name on its Florida registration:

- 1. Application by Foreign Profit Corporation to File Amendment to Application for Authorization to Transact Business in Florida;
- 2. One copy of the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation certified by the Indiana Department of Insurance;
- 3. One copy of the Company's Amended Indiana Certificate of Authority certified by the Indiana Department of Insurance; and
- 4. A check for $43.75 to the Florida Department of State.

III. Florida Certificate of Status.

As part of the Company's required filings with the Florida Department of Insurance, we need to obtain a Florida Certificate of Status from your office that reflects the Company's new name. Therefore, once you have reinstated the Company and amended its registration to reflect its new name, please send a Certificate of Status to me at:

Kerry E. Zook Baker & Daniels 300 North Meridian Street Suite 2700 Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

$8.75 of the $43.75 check I have enclosed is intended to cover your office's fee for obtaining the Certificate of Status.

Thank you for your time and attention to these matters. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to call me at (317) 237-1183 or Kevin Griffith at (317) 237-1179.

Sincerely

Krry E Zook

In furtherance of the foregoing, and not by way of limitation, every Eligible Person shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all Liability and reasonable Expense that may be incurred by him or her in connection with or resulting from any Claim, (a) if such Eligible Person is Wholly Successful, on the merits or otherwise, with respect to the Claim, or (b) if not Wholly Successful, then if such Eligible Person is determined to have acted in good faith, in what he or she reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation or at least not opposed to its best interests and, in addition, with respect to any criminal Claim is determined to have had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any Claim, by judgment, order, settlement (whether with or without court approval), or conviction or upon a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not create a presumption that an Eligible Person did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in clause (b) of this Section. The actions of an Eligible Person with respect to an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 shall be deemed to have been taken in what the Eligible Person reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation or at least not opposed to its best interest if the Eligible Person reasonably believed he or she was acting in conformity with the requirements of such Act, or he or she reasonably believed his or her actions to be in the interests of the participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

Section 10.02. Definitions.

- (a) The term "Claim" as used in this Article shall include every pending, threatened or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding and all appeals thereof (whether brought by or in the right of this Corporation or any other corporation or otherwise), civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, formal or informal, in which an Eligible Person may become involved as a party or otherwise (i) by reason of his or her being or having been an Eligible Person or (ii) by reason of any action taken or not taken by him or her in his or her capacity as an Eligible Person, whether or not he or she continued in such capacity at the time such Liability or Expense shall have been incurred.
- (b) The term "Eligible Person" as used in this Article shall mean every person (and the estate, heirs and personal representatives of such person) who is or was a Director, Officer or employee of the Corporation or who, while a Director, Officer or employee of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, member, manager, agent or fiduciary of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, limited liability company or other organization or entity, whether for profit or not. An Eligible Person shall also be considered to have been serving as a director, officer, trustee, employee, agent or fiduciary of an employee benefit plan at the request of the Corporation if his or her duties to the Corporation also imposed duties on, or otherwise involved services by, him or her to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

- (c) The terms "Liability" and "Expense" as used in this Article shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against (including excise taxes assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of, an Eligible Person.
- (d) The term "Wholly Successful" as used in this Article shall mean (i) termination of any Claim, whether on the merits or otherwise, against the Eligible Person in question without any finding of liability or guilt against him or her, (ii) approval by a court or agency, with knowledge of the indemnity herein provided, of a settlement of any Claim, or (iii) the expiration of a reasonable period of time after the threatened making of any Claim without commencement of an action, suit or proceeding and without any payment or promise made to induce a settlement.
- (e) As used in this Article, the term "Corporation" includes all constituent entities in a consolidation or merger and the new or surviving corporation of such consolidation or merger, so that any Eligible Person who is or was a director, officer or employee of such a constituent entity or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, member, manager, agent or fiduciary of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit, limited liability company or other organization or entity, whether for profit or not, shall stand in the same position under this Article with respect to the new or surviving corporation as he would if he had served the new or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

Section 10.03. Advancement of Expenses.

(a) Expenses incurred by an Eligible Person who is a Director of the Corporation in defending any Claim shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such Claim promptly as they are incurred upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Eligible Person to repay such amount if he or she is determined not to be entitled to indemnification.

(b) Expenses incurred by any other Eligible Person with respect to any Claim may be advanced by the Corporation (by action of the Board of Directors, whether or not a disinterested quorum exists) prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Eligible Person to repay such amount if he or she is determined not to be entitled to indemnification.

Section 10.04. Non-Exclusivity and Insurance. The rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses provided in this Article shall be in addition to any rights to which any Eligible Person may otherwise be entitled. The Board of Directors may, at any time and from time to time:

- (a) approve indemnification of any Eligible Person to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the provisions of applicable law or otherwise consistent with the public policy of the State of Indiana, whether on account of past or future transactions, and
- (b) authorize the Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Eligible Person against any Liability or Expense asserted against or incurred by him or her in such capacity or arising out of his or her status as an Eligible Person, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such Liability or Expense.

Section 10.05. Contract. The provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each Eligible Person, and an Eligible Person's rights hereunder shall not be diminished or otherwise adversely affected by any repeal, amendment, or modification of this Article that occurs subsequent to such person becoming an Eligible Person.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES

Section 11.01. Amendment. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained in these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or in any amendment hereto or to add any provision to these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or to any amendment hereto in any manner now or hereafter prescribed or permitted by the provisions of the Indiana Insurance Law as from time to time in effect or by the provisions of any other applicable statute of the State of Indiana. All rights conferred upon shareholders in these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or any amendment hereto are granted subject to this reservation.
