Attn: Claretha Golden

I received your letter dated July 7, 2010. It said "the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s)". There were no enclosed documents.

We have been filing the Form F-1120 with the Florida Department of Revenue since 2007. Because we were unaware and never notified before the letter dated June 11, 2010, we do not feel that the $500.00 penalty is due. I have enclosed a check for $450.00 which is the annual report filing fee for 2007, 2008 and 2009. As per our conversation, I can expect an email in 2011 to file the annual report for 2011 online at that time.

Thank you,

We have received your document for C2F, INC. and your check(s) totaling $520.00. However, the document has not been filed and is being retained in this office for the following:

The Florida Statutes in Chapter 607.1502 states "A foreign corporation which transacts business in the state without authority to do so shall be liable to the state for the years or parts thereof during which it transacted business in this state without authority in an amount equal to all fees & taxes which would have been imposed by this act upon such corporation had it duly applied for & received authority to transact business in the state as required by this act. It goes on & says "In addition to the payments thus prescribed, such corporation shall be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $500 or more than $1,000 for each year or part thereof during which it transacts business in the state without a certificate of authority. You started transacting business in Florida in 2007 and the maximum fee would be $3,450. We are not seeking the full penalty amount for each year, we are only asking for one year plus the annual report fees. I am sorry but we can not go any lower. So therefore, the $500 penalty fee will have to be paid in order for this corporation to get the authority to transact business in Florida.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6913.
