AMENDED AND RESTATED
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF ORCHARD ALLIANCE

Pursuant to the provisions of the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act, the undersigned corporation hereby amends and restates its Articles of Incorporation as follows:

FIRST: Name. The name of the corporation is Orchard Alliance.

SECOND: Duration. The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

THIRD:

(a) Purposes. The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The corporation shall serve as a supporting organization (as defined in section 509(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) for (i) The Christian and Missionary Alliance (a Colorado nonprofit corporation that is tax-exempt pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and recognized as not being a private foundation pursuant to section 509(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code), (ii) churches, districts and related ministries of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, all of which are closely related in purpose or function to The Christian and Missionary Alliance, and (iii) other publicly supported organizations described in sections 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) of the Code which are closely related in purpose or function to The Christian and Missionary Alliance (the organizations referenced above in (i), (ii) and (iii) shall collectively be referred to herein as the "Supported Organizations"). As a supporting organization, the corporation shall at all times be organized and operated solely for the benefit of and to perform certain functions for the Supported Organizations. Subject to the foregoing, the specific purposes and objectives of the corporation shall include but not be limited to the following:

(1) Assisting the Supported Organizations in their worldwide Christian ministry efforts, including the proclamation of the truth of God's Word, emphasizing the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the person and work of the Holy Spirit, and looking for the coming of the Lord.

(2) Establishing a continuous program devoted to raising funds from the general public for use in sustaining the activities of the Supported Organizations.

(3) Holding, managing, serving as trustee for, investing and otherwise administering funds used to sustain and support the programs and activities of the Supported Organizations for those Supported Organizations that choose to use this corporation's services in such capacities.

(4) Advising and assisting the Supported Organizations in the area of fund raising and in the holding, managing, investing and administering of funds.

(5) Serving, supporting and assisting Supported Organizations by offering counsel and assistance to donors and constituents of the Supported Organization in their charitable giving.

(6) Receiving from individual and other constituencies of the Supported Organizations real and personal property of every kind and type, either within or without the State of Colorado, by gift, devise, bequest, trust or otherwise, and to hold same pursuant to the purposes hereinabove and hereinafter set forth.

(7) Assisting the Support Organizations in establishing and nurturing churches related in fellowship with The Christian and Missionary Alliance around the world, dedicated to evangelism and missions.

(8) Raising funds, through borrowing from individuals, congregations, and financial institutions and the offering of debt securities, and using the proceeds from such activities to provide funds to the Supported Organizations for use in acquiring, constructing or remodeling churches or parsonages, or in other church-related and ministry-related projects.

(9) Otherwise assisting in the financing and acquisition of real property and the construction of improvements thereon to further the ministry, witness, outreach and service of the Supported Organizations.

(10) Borrowing or raising monies for any of the purposes of the corporation and, from time to time, without limit as to amount, to draw, make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures and other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments and evidence of indebtedness, and to secure the payment thereof, and the interest thereof, by mortgage on, or pledge, conveyance, or assignment in trust of, the whole, or any part, of the assets of the corporation, real, personal, or mixed, including contract rights, whether at the time owned or thereafter acquired, and to sell, pledge, or otherwise dispose of such securities or other obligations of the corporation for its corporate purposes.

(b) Powers. In furtherance of the foregoing purposes and objectives (but not otherwise) and subject to the restrictions set forth in section (c) of this article, the corporation shall have and may exercise all of the powers now or hereafter conferred upon nonprofit corporations organized under the laws of Colorado and may do everything necessary or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the corporate purposes, either alone or in connection with other organizations, entities or individuals, and either as principal or agent, subject to such limitations as are or may be prescribed by law.

(c) Restrictions On Powers.

(1) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any member which is not then an exempt organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, any director or officer of the corporation, or any other individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the benefit of the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member which is not then an exempt organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and no director or officer of the corporation, or any other individual, shall be entitled to share in any distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation or otherwise.

(2) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. However, if the corporation is an organization to which section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code applies and the corporation has effectively elected to have such section apply, the corporation shall have power to carry on the activities permitted by such section, but only to the extent such activities shall not result in the denial of exemption under such section. The corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(3) The property owned by this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to Christian religious purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon dissolution of the corporation, all the corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be paid over or transferred to The Christian and Missionary Alliance, a Colorado nonprofit corporation, provided that The Christian and Missionary Alliance is at that time an exempt organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. If The Christian and Missionary Alliance is not at that time an exempt organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or is no longer in existence, all of the corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be paid or transferred to one or more exempt religious organizations that are described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, and each of which is organized and operated exclusively for Christian religious purposes. The organizations to receive such property shall be designated by the Board of Directors.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, and, during any period of time in which the corporation is a "private foundation" as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code:

(i) The corporation shall not engage in any act of "self-dealing," as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4941 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(ii) The corporation shall make distributions for each taxable year at such time and in such manner so as not to become subject to the tax imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(iii) The corporation shall not retain any "excess business holdings," as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4943 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(iv) The corporation shall not make any investments that would jeopardize the carrying out of any of the exempt purposes of the corporation, within the meaning of section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(v) The corporation shall not make any "taxable expenditure," as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4945 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) All references in these articles of incorporation to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code are to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

FOURTH: Member. The corporation shall have only one voting member, which shall be The Christian and Missionary Alliance, a Colorado nonprofit corporation (or the successor organization thereto); provided, however, that if The Christian and Missionary Alliance shall hereafter fail to qualify as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and thereby loses its exemption from federal income tax, then The Christian and Missionary Alliance shall cease to be a voting member, and those individuals who serve as directors shall act as voting members until such time as The Christian and Missionary Alliance might regain its federal income tax exemption. The corporation shall have no capital stock.

FIFTH:

(a) Board of Directors. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a board of directors, except as otherwise provided in the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act ("Act"), these articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation. The number of directors, their classifications, if any, their terms of office and the manner of their election or appointment shall be as provided from time to time in the bylaws of the corporation.

(b) Liability of Directors. No director shall be personally liable to the corporation or to its member for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit such director's liability to the corporation or to its member for monetary damages for the following: (1) any breach of such director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or to its member, (2) any of such director's acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) acts specified in C.R.S. Section 7-128-501(2), as it now exists or hereafter may be amended (regarding a director's assent to or participation in the making of any loan by the corporation to any director or officer of the corporation), (4) acts specified in C.R.S. 7-128-403, as it now exists or hereafter may be amended (regarding a director's assent to or participation in unlawful distributions), or (5) any transaction from which such director directly or indirectly derived an improper personal benefit. If the Act hereafter is amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be further eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Act. Any repeal or modification of this Article FIFTH (b) shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

SIXTH: Bylaws. Except to the extent limited by the Act or the bylaws then in effect, the Board of Directors shall have power to amend the bylaws or repeal the bylaws and adopt new bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the member. The bylaws of the corporation may contain any provision for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation that are not inconsistent with law or these articles of incorporation, as these articles may from time to time be amended. However, no bylaw at any time in effect, and no amendment to these articles, shall have the effect of giving any member which is not then an exempt organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any director or officer of the corporation any proprietary interest in the corporation's property or assets, whether during the term of the corporation's existence or as an incident to its dissolution.

SEVENTH: Amendment to Articles of Incorporation. The Board of Directors may adopt, without member approval, one or more amendments to the articles of incorporation to: (a) delete the names and addresses of the initial directors; (b) delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered office, if a statement of change is on file with the secretary of state; (c) change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", "limited", or an abbreviation of any such word for a similar word or abbreviation in the name, or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution; or (d) make any other change expressly permitted by the Act to be made without member action. Other than those amendments listed above, only the member may amend these articles of incorporation. The Board of Directors or the member may propose an amendment to the articles of incorporation for submission to the member. The Board of Directors shall recommend the amendment to the member unless the amendment is proposed by the member or unless the Board of Directors determines that, because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances, it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the member with the amendment. Unless otherwise required by the Act or the bylaws, or unless the Board of Directors or member proposing the amendment requires a greater vote, the member shall approve or reject the amendment in accordance with the requirements for action by the member as set forth in the bylaws. The Board of Directors or the member, whichever may be proposing the amendment, may condition the effectiveness of the amendment on any basis. The corporation shall give notice, in accordance with the bylaws, to the member of the meeting at which the amendment will be voted upon. The notice of the meeting shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the amendment, and the notice shall contain or be accompanied by a copy or a summary of the amendment.
