Dear Taxpayer:

We received your Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation.

We accepted your election to be treated as an S corporation with an accounting period ending Dec. 31, 2021, as of Jan. 01, 2021. Please keep this letter in your permanent records as proof of acceptance of your election. If we examine your return, we will verify this election is appropriate for your situation.

We changed the effective date of your election to be an S corporation from Dec. 31, 2020, to Jan. 01, 2021. Our records show you are an established regular corporation with tax year ending Dec. 31, 2019, and your election can't cause a short year for your regular corporation. Therefore, your election must begin on Jan. 01, 2021. You must file Form 1120 for the year ending Dec. 31, 2020.

If you feel you still qualify for the date you originally requested, you may resubmit a completed Form 2553 along with a completed Form 1128 by the due date of your short year return.

We'd also like to take this opportunity to remind you of your tax obligations for the payment of compensation to shareholder-employees of S corporations.

When a shareholder-employee of an S corporation provides services to the S corporation, the S corporation must reasonably compensate the shareholder-employee. This compensation is subject to employment taxes.

The IRS may re-characterize distributions as salary. This position has been supported by Revenue Ruling 74-44 and in numerous court decisions.

S corporation shareholders must also know their stock and debt basis. The S corporation should notify each individual of the basis in his/her S corporation stock and debt when:

- The entity allocates a loss and/or deduction item to the individual
