members of the corporation or their designee(s) shall serve as standing members of the Board of Directors at all times. The remaining directors shall be elected annually by the general assembly to serve a term of one year. The Board Chairperson shall be elected among the Board of Directors.

4.03 REGULAR MEETINGS. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice than this article, immediately after, and at the same place as the annual meeting of members. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution the time and place for the holding of additional regular meetings of the Board without other notice than such resolution.

4.04 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Board Chairperson or any three directors. The person or persons authorized to call the special meetings of the Board may fix any place, either within or without of the state of Florida, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Board called by them.

4.05 NOTICE. Notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given at least three days previously by written notice delivered personally or sent by mail, electronic email or telegram to each director at his or her address as shown by the records of the corporation. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed, with postage thereupon prepaid. If notice be given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Electronic emails shall also be deemed delivered upon confirmation from the computer system server. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends such meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, and regular or special meeting, unless specifically required by these articles. The time and place of the meeting shall be stated in the notice.

4.06 QUORUM. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. If less than a majority of the Directors are present at said meeting, a majority of the Directors present may transact pending important business of the organization providing the Board Chairman is present or will approve such decisions upon return.

4.07 MANNER OF ACTING. The act of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or by these articles.

4.08 VACANCIES. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors caused by any other reason other than the removal of a Director by a vote of the membership shall be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors, even though they may constitute less than a quorum; and each person shall be a Director until a successor is elected by the members at the next annual meeting.

4.09 COMPENSATION. Directors as such shall not receive any compensation for their role as Directors. Directors shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred while serving as a Director when such expense is properly evidenced by a receipt and approved by a majority of the other Directors. If a Director serves in a capacity of a specific program or project of the corporation, he or she may be compensated for their work if such compensation is provided in the program or project budget.

4.10 ACTION BY DIRECTORS IN LIEU OF MEETING. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the Directors, or any action taken at a meeting of the Directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by a minimum of three Directors.
