Article 4
Powers

Specific Powers. The Association shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act of the State of Florida (Chapter 718, Florida Statutes), ~~the not for profit act (Chapter 617, Florida Statutes)~~, these Articles of Incorporation and by the Declaration of Condominium (hereinafter the "Declaration") and all of the powers and duties reasonably ~~reasonable~~ necessary to maintain, manage and operate the Condominium pursuant to such Declaration and as it may be amended from time to time, including but not limited to the following:

- To make and collect assessments against members as Unit owners to defray the costs, expenses and losses of operation.
- To use the proceeds of assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties.
- To maintain, repair, replace and operate the Condominium property.
- To purchase insurance upon the Condominium property and insurance for the protection of the Association and its members as Unit Owners.
- To make and amend reasonable rules and regulations respecting the use of the property in the Condominium.
- To approve or disapprove the transfer, mortgage and ownership of Units in the Condominium.

- To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Condominium Act of the State of Florida, the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws of the Association and the regulations for use of the property of the Condominium.
- To contract for the management of the Condominium and to delegate to such contractor all powers and duties of the Association, except such as are specifically required by the Declaration of condominium to have the approval of directors or the membership of the Association.
- To contract for the management or operation of portions of the common elements susceptible to separate management or operation.
- To employ personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Condominium.
- To purchase Units in the Condominium and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same, subject, however, to the provisions of the Declaration and Bylaws relative thereto.
- To Own and Convey property.
- To sue or be sued.
- To Contract for services to provide operation maintenance of the surface water management facilities (if the Association contemplates employing a maintenance company).
- To take any other action necessary for the purposes for which the Association is organized.

Article 10
Term

Term. The term of the Association shall be perpetual unless the condominium is terminated pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration and, in the event of such termination, the corporation shall be dissolved in accordance with the law and the control or right to access the property containing the surface water management system facilities shall be conveyed or dedicated to an appropriate governmental unit or public utility and that if not accepted, then the surface water management system facilities shall be conveyed to a non-profit corporation to the Association.
