SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

I, Thais N. Pacheco, the undersigned natural person over the age of eighteen (18), acting as an incorporator, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation of Pillar of Hope, Inc., (the "Corporation") under the Florida Non-Profit Corporation Act (the "Act"):

ARTICLE 1

NAME

The name of the Corporation is Pillar of Hope, Inc.

ARTICLE 2

NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

The corporation is a non-profit corporation. Upon dissolution, all of the Corporation's assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and within the meaning of the Florida Tax Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located exclusively for such purposes or to such organization, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE 3

DURATION

The Corporation shall begin its existence effective Monday, July 1st, 2013 and shall continue in perpetuity.

ARTICLE 4

PURPOSES

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable and educational, with a focus on providing benevolence, social outreach and well-being at a local, national and international level, within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and within the meaning of the Florida Tax Code, or any corresponding section of any future Florida Tax Code. In addition, to make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE 5

POWERS

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles, the Corporation shall have all of the powers provided in the Act. Moreover, the Corporation shall have all implied powers necessary and proper to carry out its express powers. The Corporation may pay reasonable compensation to directors, or officers for services rendered to or for the Corporation in furtherance of one or more of its purposes set forth above.

ARTICLE 6

RESTRICTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

The Corporation shall not pay dividends or other corporate income to its directors or officers or otherwise accrue distributable profits or permit the realization of private gain. The Corporation shall have no power to take any action prohibited by the Act. The Corporation shall not have the power to engage in any activities, except to an insubstantial degree, that are not in furtherance of the purposes set forth above. The Corporation shall have no power to take any action that would be inconsistent with the requirements for a tax exemption under Internal Revenue Code 501 (c)(3) and related regulations, rulings, and procedure. The Corporation shall have no power to take any action that would be inconsistent with the requirements for receiving tax-deductible charitable contributions under Internal Revenue Code Section 170 (c)(2) and related regulations, ruling and procedures. Regardless of any other provision in these Articles of Incorporation or state law, the Corporation shall have no power to:

1. Engage in activities or use its assets in manners that are not in furtherance of one or more exempt purposes, as set forth above and defined by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures, except to an insubstantial degree.
2. Serve a private interest other than one that is clearly incidental to an overriding public interest.
3. Devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, except as provided by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings and procedures.
4. Participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. The prohibited activities include the publishing or distributing of statements and any other direct or indirect campaign activities.
5. Have objectives that characterized it as an "action organization" as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures.
6. Distribute its assets on dissolution other than for one or more exempt purposes; on dissolution, the Corporation's assets shall be distributed to the state government for a public purpose, or to an organization exempt from taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501 (c)(3) to be used to accomplish the general purposes for which the Corporation was organized.
7. Permit any part of the net earnings of the Corporation to inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or member of the Corporation or any private individual.

ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT

Action may be taken by use of signed written consent by the number of members, directors, or committee members whose vote would be necessary to take action at a meeting at which such person entitled to vote were present and voted. Each written consent must bear the date of signature of each person signing it. A consent signed by less than all the members, directors, or committee members is not effective to take the intended action unless consents, signed by the required number of persons, are delivered to the corporation within sixty (60) days after the date of the earliest dated consent delivered to the corporation. Delivery must be made by hand, or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The delivery may be made to the Corporation's registered office, registered agent, principal place of business, transfer agent, registrar, exchange agent or an officer or agent having custody of books in which the relevant proceedings are recorded. If the delivery is made to the Corporation's principal place of business, the consent must be addressed to the president or principal executive officer.

The Corporation will give prompt notice of the action taken to people who do not sign consents. If the action taken requires documents to be filed with Secretary of State, the filed documents will indicate that the written consent procedures have been properly followed.

A telegram, telex, cablegram, or similar transmission by a member, director, or committee member, or photographic, facsimile, or similar reproduction of a signed writing is to be regarded as being signed by the member, director, or committee member.

ARTICLE 14

AMENDMENT

These articles may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of votes of the members of the board of Directors.

I executed these articles of Incorporation on July 1st, 2013.

I hereby affirm that I am familiar with and accept the duties and responsibilities of Registered Agent.
