ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
THE MICHAEL SULLIVAN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC., A NOT FOR PROFIT CORPORATION

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article I Name

The name of this not-for-profit corporation shall be THE MICHAEL SULLIVAN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.

Article II
Principal Office and Mailing Address

The principal office and mailing address of this corporation shall be 6573 Marissa Loop, Unit 1801, Naples, Florida 34108.

Article III Purpose

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, which purposes shall be limited further to those which are lawful and not specifically prohibited to corporations under the laws of the State of Florida.

Article IV
Powers and Restrictions

Section 4.1 This corporation shall have the general power to do all lawful acts, as conferred upon corporations not for profit by Section 617.0302, Florida Statutes, including all those things necessary and desirable to carry out the purposes and responsibilities of this corporation.

Section 4.2 Notwithstanding the generality of the foregoing, the powers of this corporation shall be subject to the following limitations and restrictions.

(a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, Trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(b) The corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by §4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(c) The corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in §4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(d) The corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in §4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(e) The corporation will not make any investments in a manner as to subject it to tax under §4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(f) The corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in §4945 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Article V
Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Section 6.5. Indemnification. The Board of Trustees is hereby specifically authorized to make provision for indemnification of Trustees, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted by law; provided, however, that no such indemnification shall be permitted if such indemnification would violate the purposes of the corporation as specified in Article III above or would be inconsistent with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) and Section 170(c)(2) of the code.

Article VII
Members

The corporation shall have one class of members consisting of such individual or individuals admitted as members from time to time by the Board of Trustees in accordance with the provisions set forth in the bylaws of the corporation. The qualifications and rights of the members shall be as set forth in the bylaws of the corporation. The members shall have no right, title or interest whatsoever in the income, property or assets of the corporation, nor shall any portion of such income, property or assets be distributed to any member upon the dissolution or winding up of this corporation. Members of this corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the corporation.
