Article XXI Liability

Section 1—Nothing in these articles shall constitute any member of the Board of Directors partners for any purpose. No Director, officer, agent, or employee of this organization shall be liable for the acts or failure to act on part of any other member, officer, agent or employee of this organization. Nor shall any member, officer, agent or employee be liable for his/her acts or failure to act under these articles, excepting only acts or omissions to act arising out of his/her negligence or misconduct in the performance of day for this organization.

Article XXII

Conflict of Interest

Section 1—Purpose-The purpose of the conflict-of-interest policy is to protect the organization's interest when it is considering negotiating a transaction or agreement that might benefit the personal interest of an officer or Director of the organization or might result in a possible gain for the transaction. This article is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable State and Federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2—The officers, employees, or agents of the organization should neither solicit nor accept gratuities, favors, or anything of monetary value from contractors/vendors.

Section 3—No officer, employee or agent of the organization shall participate in the selection, award or administration of a purchase or contract with a vendor where, to his/her knowledge, any of the following has a financial interest in that purchase or contract.

Section 4—Disclosure—Any possible conflict of interest shall be disclosed by the person or persons concerned.

Section 5—Board Action—When a conflict of interest is relevant to a matter requiring action by the Board of Directors, the interested person(s) shall call it to the attention to the Board of Directors and said person(s) shall not vote on the matter. In addition, the person(s) shall not participate in the final deliberation or decision regarding the matter under consideration and shall retire from the room during the vote of the Board of Directors. When there is a doubt as to whether conflict exists, the matter shall be resolved by vote of the Board of Directors, excluding the person(s) concerning whose situation the doubt has arisen.

Section 6—Record of Conflict-The official minutes of the Board of Directors shall reflect that the conflict of interest was disclosed, and the interested person(s) was (were) not present during the final discussion or vote and did not vote on the matter.

Section 7—Violations of Conflict of Interest Policy—If the governing board has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest; it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and allow the member the opportunity to explain the alleged failure or to disclose. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article XXIII Distribution of Funds Upon Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article XXIV Members

This organization shall have no members

Article XXV Bylaws

Bylaws, not inconsistent with the law of these Articles, shall be adopted by the Board of Directors to provide for the administration of the affairs of the Corporation and the exercise of its corporate powers.

Article XXVI Amendments Section 1—Any amendments of the constitution of bylaws must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors.
