To whom this may concern,

I will start from the beginning. In early July I received the UBR report to be filled out and it said I need to pay $550.00 because it was late. The reason it was not paid was I never received the first one. I spent well over 3 hours trying to contact someone to resolve this and everyone I talked with kept giving me a different phone number to call. From what I understand your department was going through some changes. I finally talked to someone and they had advised me to send the payment of $150.00 with a letter explaining the situation about not receiving the first one and that everything would be fine. I followed all the procedures and then I received a letter this past Wednesday the 20th of August stating that I owe an additional $400.00. I just noticed that the letter states that I need to respond by August 22, 2003. I called the phone number listed on the letter and I spoke with a lady named Marquitta Williams and she explained to me the reason I received this letter was because the address I sent my payment and letter the first time was never read just the payment was processed. Marquitta had advised me to write another letter to this address and explain the situation in writing and all the late charges would be waived.

Thank you.
