Article 6. Principal Office

The mailing address of the initial principal office of the Corporation is 6622 Southpoint Drive South, Suite 310, Jacksonville, Florida 32216.

Article 7. Terms of Directors

The Board of Directors shall be divided into three (3) classes, Class I, Class II and Class III, which shall be as nearly equal in number as possible. Each director in Class I shall be elected to an initial term of one (1) year, each director in Class II shall be elected to an initial term of two (2) years, each director in Class III shall be elected to an initial term of three (3) years, and each director shall serve until the election and qualification of his or her successor or until his or her earlier resignation, death or removal from office. Upon the expiration of the initial terms of office for each Class of directors, the directors of each Class shall be elected for terms of three (3) years, to serve until the election and qualification of their successors or until their earlier resignation, death or removal from office.

Article 8. Removal of Directors

(a) At any shareholders' meeting with respect to which notice of such purpose has been given, the entire Board of Directors or any individual director may be removed without cause only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote in an election of directors.

(b) At any shareholders' meeting with respect to which notice of such purpose has been given, the entire Board of Directors or any individual director may be removed with cause only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote in an election of directors.

(c) For purposes of this Article 8, a director of the Corporation may be removed for cause if (i) the director has been convicted of a felony; (ii) any bank regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Corporation requests or demands the removal; or (iii) at least two thirds (2/3) of the directors of the Corporation then in office, excluding the director to be removed, determine that the director's conduct has been inimical to the best interests of the Corporation.

Article 9. Bylaws; Number of Directors

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this Article 9, the Board of Directors shall have the right to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation by the affirmative vote of a majority of all directors then in office, and the shareholders shall have such right by the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote in an election of directors.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this Article 9, any amendment of the bylaws of the Corporation changing the number of directors shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all directors then in office or the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote in an election, at any regular or special meeting of the shareholders, and notice of the proposed change must be contained in the notice of the meeting.

Article 10. Factors Considered in Business Transaction

The Board of Directors, when evaluating any offer of another party (i) to make a tender offer or exchange offer for any equity security of the Corporation, (ii) to merge or consolidate any other corporation with the Corporation, or (iii) to purchase or otherwise acquire all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation, shall, in determining what is in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders, give due consideration to all relevant factors, including without limitation: (A) the short term and long term social and economic effects on the employees, customers, shareholders and other constituents of the Corporation and its subsidiaries, and on the communities within which the Corporation and its subsidiaries operate (it being understood that any subsidiary bank of the Corporation is charged with providing support to and being involved in the communities it serves); and (B) the consideration being offered by the other party in relation to the then current value of the Corporation in a freely negotiated transaction and in relation to the Board of Directors' then estimate of the future value of the Corporation as an independent entity.

Article 11. Liability of Directors

(a) A director is not personally liable for monetary damages to the Corporation or any other person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy, by a director, unless:

(i) The director breached or failed to perform his duties as a director; and

(ii) The director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties constitutes:

(1) A violation of the criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A judgment or other final adjudication against a director in any criminal proceeding for a violation of the criminal law estops that director from contesting the fact that his breach, or failure to perform, constitutes a violation of the criminal law; but does not estop the director from establishing that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful;

(2) A transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, either directly or indirectly;

(3) A circumstance under which the liability provisions of Section 607.0834 of the Florida Business Corporation Act are applicable;

(4) In a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or by or in the right of a shareholder, conscious disregard for the best interest of the Corporation, or willful misconduct; or

(5) In a proceeding by or in the right of someone other than the Corporation or a shareholder, recklessness or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property.

(b) Any repeal or modification of this Article by the shareholders of the Corporation shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

(c) Unless two thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office shall approve the proposed change, this Article 11 may be amended or rescinded only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon, at any regular or special meeting of the shareholders, and notice of the proposed change must be contained in the notice of the meeting.

Article 12. Shareholder Meetings

(a) Special meetings of shareholders may be called at anytime by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, by the President or by a majority of the directors then in office.

(b) Advance notice of shareholder nominations for the election of directors and of business to be brought by shareholders before any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given in the manner provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Article 13. Indemnification

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify its officers and directors and advance or reimburse expenses incurred to the fullest extent permitted under the Florida Business Corporation Act. The Corporation may indemnify employees or agents of the Corporation as permitted under the Florida Business Corporation Act. Such indemnification and advancement or reimbursement of expenses shall not be deemed exclusive of any additional indemnification that the Board of Directors may deem advisable or of any rights to which those indemnified may otherwise be entitled. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may determine from time to time whether and to what extent to maintain insurance providing indemnification for officers and directors and such insurance need not be limited to the Corporation's power of indemnification under the Florida Business Corporation Act.

(b) Any repeal or modification of this Article by the shareholders of the Corporation shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

(c) Unless two thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office shall approve the proposed change, this Article 13 may be amended or rescinded only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon, at any regular or special meeting of the shareholders, and notice of the proposed change must be contained in the notice of the meeting.

Article 14. Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred on shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the provisions set forth in this Article and Articles 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 13 hereof may not be altered, amended or repealed in any respect, and no other provision(s) may be adopted which would impair in any respect the operation or effect of any such provisions, except by the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of capital stock, voting together as a single class; provided, however, that such two-thirds (2/3) voting requirement shall not be applicable if the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall approve such action by resolution adopted by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office, in which case the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the then outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to be cast at the meeting of shareholders called for that purpose, voting together as a single class, shall be required to approve such action.

Article 15. Savings Clause

Should any provision of these Articles of Incorporation, or any clause hereof, be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the remaining provisions and clauses of these Articles of Incorporation shall remain valid and fully enforceable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Incorporation on this 15th day of November, 2004.
