Dear Sir (Madam):

I did not receive my first notice of my Annual Report and when I received the attached second notice I went immediately to my accountant. He checked my accounting records and saw that I had not paid. If you will check my file you will see that I have always paid timely ; I have always paid when I receive the report. Since this bill is once a year and I have always depended on receiving the annual report to make payment I was not aware that I had not paid until now.

I called your office and spoke to Mari who stated that I should write you this letter and make payment for $150. Please accept my apology for this inconvenience. I do not know why I did not receive the original. From now on I will mark it on my calendar so this does not happen again.

Sincerely,

Rosario Leyva - Vice President
