Dear Sir or Madam:

We were recently informed that our incorporation was dissolved, as I had not filed my yearly incorporation papers with the $150.00 fee. My company never received the necessary documents and that is the reason it was not filed. I called your office and was told that we would not be charged a penalty as they do have all the years of returned mail. I was told that I just needed to apply for reinstatement and pay $150.00 for all the years that we did not file, with the total being $750.00. Enclosed is the check for $750.00. I appreciate you waiving the penalties.

Thanking You,

Sean Richard William Pantin
