Attention: Ms. Karen Gibson,

I have searched through many documents and have failed to find any evidence of the $150.00 payment for the reinstatement of TABBASKETS, INC. Granted I know that I have mailed the payment out and back again on more than one occasion. I strongly believe the check was accidently detached during the correction(s) of my first time application.

The first and second letter(s) accompanying my returned application was sometime in March and April, 1998, requesting further information regarding the address in boxes 12 and 13. I guess the letters were discarded when the corrections were made. Unfortunately, I did not make copies of those letters--I returned the letters with the corrections made, which I thought would assist with associating the error with the correction request.

Well, I can not express my anxiety of paying an additional $400.00 after the efforts I've made to process the reinstatement correctly before the deadline. Enclosed is another check for $150.00. Please consider acceptance of the payment at this time.

Feel free to call collect, if there are any questions (954 704-7945).

Thank you in advance for your assistance and consideration,

Ms. Tabatha J. Williams
President
